2-day Workshop with Pete Monaghan

Yr Hen Ysgol will serve as our studio for this 2-day pilot workshop.

A sketch locally, weather permitting, will serve as reference material for ongoing mixed media work. Initial playful exercises on paper will strenghten our visual language. We'll learn how to analyse and represent elements of architecture in the landscape, including gates, stone walls and buildings. We'll investigate characteristics of regional Pembrokeshire buildings and pursue exciting compositions using size, scale and perspective. Collage materials both found and recycled will initiate fresh ideas and take our work off on unsuspected tangents.

The emphasis will be on experimentation and garnering new techniques rather than producing finished work.

10am - 4pm
